About PSIA-AASI

- Founded more than 60 years ago, PSIA-AASI's organizational vision is to create lifelong adventures through education.
- The backbone of PSIA-AASI, our 33,500 members, are genuine professionals in the ski and snowboard fields. Our commitment to stringent standards, continuing education, and, often, certification requirements elevates our passion for this sport.
- We create expert skiers and riders, skilled teachers, and strong on-mountain companions.
- We provide education for all snowsports disciplines: Alpine, Snowboard, Adaptive, Telemark, and Nordic.

PSIA-AASI – The Learning Connection

INTERSKI VAIL APRIL 4 – 9 , 2027

PSIA-AASI:

Proud Members of All Three Interski Pillar Organizations

INTERSKI VAIL APRIL 4 – 9 , 2027

PSIA-AASI supports

International Instructors working in the US

- The U.S. ski industry—working with PSIA/AASI and with the National Ski Areas Association—is currently applying for a special use visa with the U.S. State Department that would enable highly certified foreign ski/snowboard instructors to obtain a work-authorization visa to work in the U.S.
- If approved, international instructors could legally work in the U.S. under the J-1 Visa program at US ski areas
- It would apply for instructors from the Southern Hemisphere, Europe and Asia ski areas

EPIC PROMISE

Environmental and community sustainability are at the core of our foundational values at Vail Resorts.

In order to "Do Good" where we work, live and have fun, Vail employees bring this value to life every day through actions called Vail Resorts Epic Promise.
